Candidates for President and U.S. Congress Pledge to Support both:

The "Maximizing Americans' Prosperity Amendment" that at a minimum prohibits total federal spending from increasing faster than average family income with exceptions for Social Security and national emergencies.

The Let Us Vote for "Maximizing Americans' Prosperity Amendment" Resolution that:

- Sets the time and place ("call") for an Article V Convention of States to propose the Maximizing Americans' Prosperity Amendment upon receipt of 34 Balanced Budget Amendment (BBA) or Any-Subject Applications. (Note: there are currently 33 Article V Applications: 27 BBA & 6 on Any-Subject)
- Voids any Article V Convention-proposed amendment unrelated to fiscal limits on debt, deficits, taxes, and/or spending.
- Stipulates ratification by Article V's State Convention mode, where a majority vote of the people for "Yes" pledged Delegates in three-quarters of the states may ratify an amendment, as was the case with the 21st Amendment.
